CHICORKA, MONTY WIN THE PEPSI JUNIOR CONNECTICUT PGA CHAMPIONSHIP

Kensington, Conn. – Branden Chicorka, Enfield, Conn. shot back-to-back one-under-par 71's to come from behind and win the win the 33rd Pepsi Junior Connecticut PGA Championship. Elizabeth Monty, North Granby, Conn. also came from behind to win by shooting a seven-over-par 152. Chicorka, a first time Junior PGA Championship winner, trailed first round leader Manny Tulumaris, Hartford, Conn. by one shot. Tulumaris finished the tournament three-over-par, 147, good enough for a tie for fourth. Monty trailed first round leaders Kaitlin Coons, Wilbraham, Mass. and Sarah Sideranko, New Britain, Conn. by three shots. Coons and Sideranko finished tied for second, posting 36-hole totals of twelve-over-par 157. For Monty, this is her second Junior PGA Championship victory, she last won in 2006.

Chicorka and Monty, along with 150 of the nation's top junior golfers qualify for The PGA of America's flagship junior event, the Junior PGA Championship, August 13-16, 2008, at TPC River's Bend in Mainesville, Ohio.

The championship for boys and girls, ages 13-18, was conducted at two golf courses; Timberlin Golf Course in Kensington, Conn. and Stanley Golf Course in New Britain, Conn., with players each playing one round at the respective courses.

Pepsi is the Official Softdrink of the PGA of America. Pepsi has been an 11-year sponsor of PGA junior golf programs in Connecticut and Western Massachusetts. USA Hauling & Recycling of Enfield, Conn. is the supporting sponsor.

The Connecticut Section of the PGA of America is one of 41 sections of the world's largest working sports organization, and is comprised of 350 men and women golf Professionals who are the recognized experts in growing, teaching and managing the game of golf. Since its founding in 1933, the section and its golf professionals of Connecticut and Western Massachusetts have served steadfast for 75 years as the experts in the game and business of golf.
